TRADING STYLE

The White Hart is a fantastic pub in the heart of Kendal. Its central location makes it easily accessible for shoppers, tourists and locals throughout the day. The pub is well positioned to make it a "must-visit" venue during the evening, either to enjoy local artists providing quality entertainment, or to enhance an evening as part of a pub crawl. We are seeking an Operator to deliver a quality hospitality offering in the centre of Kendal. With quality cask ales and craft beers at its heart, supported by a great selection of wines and soft drinks, the White Hart has everything it needs to become a thriving local pub and a destination for customers from across the area. This is a real opportunity to build the White Hart into a true hidden gem. We have the pub and we have the vision, we just need to have the right Operator to bring the pub to life.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT

DEMOGRAPHICS

The White Hart is set in a town centre close to retail and workers. Drink sales are high as there is no food and there is often a significant drinks sales on Friday and Saturday night. With a good range, a pub can charge a premium and capitalise on local footfall. Competition will often be fierce from casual dining brands and other pubs and bars. Working out where you fit in this competitive environment cannot only be determined by the local population but also the wider town population and who your competitors are focussed on.
