George & Dragon – History

The present town owes its importance to Edward I's Castle, but before that was built PORTH WGYR (as the town was originally called) ranked as one of the chief ports of Britain. In 1296, the year in which the Castle was completed, Edward I. fortified the town and incorporated it by charter under the name of Beaumaris, a name evolved by him from Beau and Marias (Marsh).

Near the old Town Hall (now demolished) stood the Stocks, the Ducking Chair and the Pillory. An eighteenth century writer comments on their disappearance: "It's a pleasing proof of improved morality that the constant exhibition in-terrorem of these instruments of civic justice is no longer necessary."

1410

The George & Dragon (site of the original building) was only a Merchants House

Circa 1500-1540

The present beams within the pub have been dated to this period

FOOD ALLERGIES AND INTOLERANCES

Before ordering drinks or food, please speak with a member of our staff about your requirements. Whilst we take care to preserve the integrity of our vegetarian (v) products, we must advise that these products are handled in a multi-ingredient kitchen environment. Some fish may contain small bones. All dishes are prepared in areas where allergens are present. Therefore, there is a risk that ingredients used in your meal may have accidentally come into contact with an undeclared allergen, leading to cross contamination. Cooking equipment (e.g. fryers, grills etc.) and food preparation areas may be shared and fried items containing different allergens may be cooked in the same frying oil. Please ask a team member if you would like further information.
